Annual Report -2020-21

Introduction

Jyothis Charitable Society, the social work venture of Sacred Heart Congregation gave through the development and relief work through the last year successfully. Jyothis society tried her best for the holistic and comprehensive development of the society. The book "Karmaveedhi" helped us to have a clear outline about social welfare activities. Let us go through the activities of last one year.

Vision: A harmonious society which experiences and shares compassionate love joy, peace, justice and equality.

Mission: Promoting the dignity of the people especially the poor and marginalized by liberating them from exploitation, poverty and ignorance through an awakening and action oriented programme.

Main work areas during last year

1. Covid-19 Relief work

As this year 2020-21 was affected by Covid-19, our main attention was given to the relief work. Our Governing Body took decision to concentrate nearby colonies and wards of Vijayapuram Panchayath ie Kalambukattu kunnu, Manganam Colony, nearby houses of Ward 8 and 12. Rs. 83,000 spend for the Medical Kit (Sanitizer, Masks, Vaporizer). A part from that we distributed food kits to 150 houses.

2. Core Group

20th General Core group meeting conducted on 27/05/2021 as google meet . Rev. Sr .Alphonsa Thottumkal S H inaugurated the meeting. Eleven provinces submitted their report of Social work activities. Sr. Josmy Valliyattu S H express the vote of thanks. Programme concluded at 4.45 pm. 33 members participated in this meeting

3. Network with other Agencies:

We Jyothis Charitable Society have a good network with Prathibha Purusha sahaya sangam in social work activities. We contributed Rs. 10000 for Covid relief work through this society. The healthy relationship helped us to have a good evaluation about our social work activities.
